CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Jury Trial Demanded

FILED
AUG 24 2018
By KATE BARKMAN, Clerk
Dep. Clerk

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Jessica Slivak ("Plaintiff" or "Slivak"), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff is an "individual with a disability" as that term is understood pursuant to Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., and its implementing regulations.

2. Plaintiff, a forty-three-year-old female individual, was born with Osteogenesis Imperfecta (i.e., brittle bone disease), which requires her to use a wheelchair on a daily basis. Indeed, for mobility, Plaintiff has used a wheelchair for her entire adult life.

3. Plaintiff leads an active life. She maintains her career as a Speech-Language Pathologist, while actively serving on various committees in her church and being a wife and mother of three children.

4. Accordingly, Plaintiff is routinely traveling for work, family, and social functions.

5. To facilitate this active lifestyle, Plaintiff maintains a specially modified mini-van with an automatic side-ramp, allowing Plaintiff to wheel herself into and out of her vehicle so as to permit her to travel independently.

6. Naturally, this vehicle is registered as a “handicapped” vehicle with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania’s Department of Transportation and, consequently, bears a “handicapped” license plate.

7. Because of her vehicle’s side-ramp, Plaintiff requires the use of “van accessible” handicapped parking spaces in order to provide her with sufficient space for access to and from her motor vehicle.

8. As set forth below, Plaintiff was denied full access to Defendants’ (defined below) Property, which includes the trampoline park known as Sky Zone, due to its non-compliance with the ADA. As set forth below, Defendants have failed to comply with the ADA’s regulations regarding handicap parking. As such, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants violated the ADA and its implementing regulations.

9. Unless Defendants are required to remove the access barriers described below and required to change its policies and practices so that access barriers do not reoccur, Plaintiff and the proposed Class will continue to be denied full and equal access to Defendants’ Property as described, and will be deterred from patronizing Sky Zone located at the Property.

10. The ADA permits private individuals, such as Plaintiff, to bring suit in federal court to compel compliance with the ADA.

11. Accordingly, and on behalf of a class of similarly situated individuals, Plaintiff seeks: (i) a declaration that Defendants’ facilities violate federal law as described; and (ii) an injunction requiring Defendants to remove the identified access barriers, so that they are fully accessible to, and independently usable by, physically-impaired individuals such as Plaintiff and the class she seeks to represent.

12. Plaintiff also requests that once Defendants are fully in compliance with the requirements of the ADA, the Court retain jurisdiction for a period of time to be determined to ensure that Defendants have adopted and is following an institutional policy that will, in fact, cause Defendants to remain in compliance with the law.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over the ADA claims asserted herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 42 U.S.C. § 12188.

14. Plaintiff's claims asserted herein arose in this judicial district and Defendants maintains its headquarters and/or does substantial business in this judicial district.

15. Venue in this judicial district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2), in that this is the judicial district in which a substantial part of the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred.

PARTIES

16. Plaintiff is and, at all times relevant hereto, was a resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Plaintiff is and, at all times relevant hereto, has been a legally handicapped individual, and is therefore a member of a protected class under the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2), and the regulations implementing the ADA set forth at 28 C.F.R. § 36.101 et seq.

17. Defendant PHILLY TRAMPOLINE PARKS, LLC ("Philly Trampoline") is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with a listed corporate address of 719 Harvest Road Chalfont, Pennsylvania 18914.

18. Defendant Philly Trampoline owns, manages, operates or otherwise controls Sky Zone Philadelphia (“Sky Zone”), an indoor trampoline park located at 9490 Blue Grass Road, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (“Property”).

19. Defendant 10551 DECATUR ROAD INVESTMENTS, LP (“Decatur”) is a limited partnership organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a listed corporate address of 1609 Pennypack Rd, Huntingdon Valley, PA 19006.

20. Upon information and belief, Decatur owns the Property.

21. Defendant DECATUR ROAD CORPORATION (“Decatur Road”) is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a listed corporate address of 1609 Pennypack Rd, Huntingdon Valley, PA 19006, and is a general partner of Decatur.

22. Upon information and belief, Philly Trampoline, Decatur, and Decatur Road (collectively, “Defendants”) jointly share responsibility for the Property’s compliance with the parking regulations of the ADA.

23. Defendants operate a “public accommodation” pursuant to the ADA.

TITLE III OF THE ADA

24. On July 26, 1990, President George H.W. Bush signed into law the ADA, a comprehensive civil rights law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of disability.

25. The ADA broadly protects the rights of individuals with disabilities with respect to employment, access to State and local government services, places of public accommodation, transportation, and other important areas of American life.

26. Title III of the ADA prohibits discrimination in the activities of places of public accommodation and requires places of public accommodation to comply with ADA standards and to be readily accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals with disabilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12181-89.

27. On July 26, 1991, the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) issued rules implementing Title III of the ADA, which are codified at 28 C.F.R. § 36.<sup>1</sup>

28. Appendix A of the 1991 Title III regulations (republished as Appendix D to 28 C.F.R. § 36) contains the ADA standards for Accessible Design (“1991 Standards”), which were based upon the Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (“1991 ADAAG”), published by the Access Board on the same date.<sup>2</sup>

29. The ADA requires removal of existing architectural barriers in facilities existing before January 26, 1992, where such removal is readily achievable. See 42 U.S.C. §§ 12181(9), 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv), and 28 C.F.R. § 36.304(a).

30. Facilities newly built or altered after January 26, 1993 must be readily accessible and usable by disabled individuals, including individuals who use wheelchairs. See 28 C.F.R. § 36.401 and 28 C.F.R. § 36.402.

31. The DOJ revised the 1991 ADAAG when it issued the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design (“2010 Standards”), which were published on September 15, 2010.

32. Notably, many of the requirements with respect to parking remained the same in the 2010 Standards.

<sup>2</sup> The Access Board was established by section 502 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. See 29 U.S.C. § 792. The passage of the ADA expanded the Access Board’s responsibilities. The ADA requires the Access Board to “issue minimum guidelines . . . to ensure that buildings, facilities, rail passenger cars, and vehicles are accessible, in terms of architecture and design, transportation, and communication, to individuals with disabilities.” 42 U.S.C. § 12204. The ADA requires the DOJ to issue regulations that include enforceable accessibility standards applicable to facilities subject to Title III that are consistent with the “minimum guidelines” issued by the Access Board, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12134(c), 12186(c).

33. As set forth below, Defendants have failed to comply with those requirements.

VIOLATIONS AT ISSUE

34. Defendants own, operate and/or otherwise control a place of public accommodation.

35. Defendants' Property is not fully accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals with disabilities.

36. Defendants' Property is within Plaintiff's regular area of travel. She has patronized this location in the past and intends to continue to patronize Defendants' Property.

37. However, even though Plaintiff desires and intends to visit the Property, she continues to be denied full, safe and equal access, because of Defendants' failure to remove the barriers and will be deterred from visiting Defendants' Property until those barriers to entry are removed/remediated.

38. During her visits, Plaintiff experienced difficulty and unnecessary risk due to the existence of architectural barriers that impeded her access to, and ability to visit the Sky Zone at Defendants' Property.

39. Importantly, due to the architectural barriers at the Property, Plaintiff is unable to take her children to the Sky Zone without the assistance of others.

40. On or about April 4, 2018, Plaintiff last visited Defendants' Property to take her children to the Sky Zone.

41. Plaintiff has not returned to the Property since, because of the difficulties and unnecessary risks she faces from the architectural barriers that have impeded her ability to independently bring her children to the Sky Zone.

42. For instance, Section 208.2.4 of the 2010 Standards requires “at least one” parking space for every six “handicap accessible” parking spaces a facility maintains to be designated as “van accessible.”

43. The ADA further requires “van accessible” spaces to be either 96 inches wide, with an adjacent 96-inch “access aisle,” or 132 inches wide, with an adjacent 60-inch “access aisle.”

44. Despite these mandates, no parking spaces at Defendants’ Property are designated “van accessible,” as required by the ADA.

45. As a result of Defendants’ failure to provide “van accessible” spaces, with the requisite adjacent “access aisles,” as required by the ADA, Plaintiff cannot safely lower her van’s ramp, which is her only means of entry and exit from her vehicle.

46. In further violation of the ADA, the purportedly “handicap accessible” parking spaces lack signage that conforms to Section 502.6 of the 2010 Standards that requires each “handicap accessible” parking space to be identified by a sign, the bottom of which shall be at least 60 inches above the ground, that includes the International Symbol of Accessibility.

47. Most dangerous to Plaintiff, however, is a curb lip at the end of a purported “access aisle” leading to the entrance of the Sky Zone that Plaintiff cannot traverse independently with her wheelchair.

48. Section 303.4 of the 2010 Standards states ramps and curb ramps are required along accessible routes to span changes in level greater than .5 inches.

49. Section 405.7 of the 2010 Standards requires level landings at the bottom and top of curb ramps.

50. More specifically, section 4.7.2 of Appendix A to 28 C.F.R. § 36 mandates that transitions from the ramp to the walkway, gutter, and street must be flush and free of abrupt level changes.

51. As seen in the photograph below, at least one of the “access aisles” at the Property leads to a curb in excess of .5 inches in height within the curb ramp cutout and, therefore, is not compliant with ADA:

52. Plaintiff is unable to traverse this curb ramp cutout independently, without risk of serious injury due to her wheelchair falling over.

53. Defendants have been put on notice of this dangerous barrier as Plaintiff specifically complained and pointed out the danger of this barrier to management of Philly Trampoline.

54. Plaintiff will continue to attempt to use Defendants' facilities. However, so long as Defendants continues to violate the ADA, Plaintiff will be unable to use them independently and will be, thereby, denied full access to Defendants' facilities.

55. Upon information and belief, Defendants have centralized policies regarding the management and operation of the Property, and those policies are inadequate to ensure compliance with the ADA, as is demonstrated by the fact that Defendants' Property remains non-compliant even after Plaintiff complained.

56. Indeed, had adequate policies or procedures been in place, Defendants would have presumably caught and corrected the ADA violations complained of herein.

57. Plaintiff requests periodic monitoring to confirm that the public accommodations are brought into compliance and remain in compliance.

58. Without injunctive relief, Plaintiff will continue to be unable to safely and independently use Defendants' facilities.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

59. Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to Rules 23(a) and 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of herself and all individuals with disabilities who have attempted to access, or will attempt to access Defendants' facilities, but experienced difficulty or hazards in ambulating through Defendant's parking facilities ("Class").

60. Upon information and belief, the Class is so numerous that joinder of all individual members in one action would be impracticable. The disposition of the individual claims of the respective Class members through this class action will benefit both the parties and this Court.

61. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class. The claims of the Plaintiff and members of the Class are based on the same legal theories and arise from the same unlawful conduct.

62. Common Questions of Fact and Law: There is a well-defined community of interest and common questions of fact and law affecting members of the Class in that they all have been and/or are being denied their civil rights to full and equal access to, and use and enjoyment of, Defendants' facilities and/or services due to Defendants' failure to make its facilities fully accessible and independently usable as above described.

63. The questions of fact and law common to the class include but are not limited to the following:

- a. Whether Defendants are a "public accommodation" under the ADA;
- b. Whether Defendants' conduct in failing to make its facilities fully accessible and independently usable as described above violated the ADA;
- c. Whether Defendants' system or procedures for ensuring ADA compliance is adequate and appropriate;
- d. Whether remediation of Defendants' facilities is appropriate and financially feasible; and
- e. Whether Plaintiff and members of the class are entitled to declaratory and injunctive relief.

64. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the class because her interests do not conflict with the interests of the members of the Class. Plaintiff will fairly, adequately, and vigorously represent and protect the interests of the members of the class and have no interests antagonistic to the members of the class. Plaintiff has retained counsel who are competent and experienced in the prosecution of class action litigation.

65. Class certification is appropriate pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2) because Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, making appropriate both declaratory and injunctive relief with respect to Plaintiff and the Class as a whole.

COUNT I VIOLATION OF THE ADA

66. The allegations contained in the previous paragraphs are incorporated by reference.

67. Defendants' facilities were required to be altered, designed, or constructed so that they are readily accessible and usable by disabled individuals, including individuals who use wheelchairs. See 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

68. The architectural barriers described above demonstrate that Defendants' facilities were not altered, designed, or constructed in a manner that causes them to be readily accessible to and usable by individuals who use wheelchairs, including Plaintiff and the class she seeks to represent.

69. The architectural barriers described above demonstrate that Defendants have failed to remove barriers, as required by 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv).

70. Defendants' facilities are required to comply with the DOJ's 2010 Standards or, in some cases, the 1991 Standards.

71. Defendants are required to provide individuals who use wheelchairs full and equal enjoyment of its facilities. See 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

72. Defendants have discriminated against Plaintiff and the Class in that it has failed to make its facilities fully accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals who use wheelchairs in violation of the ADA, as described above.

73. Defendants' conduct is ongoing, and, given that Defendants have not complied with the ADA's requirements that public accommodations be fully accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals with disabilities, Plaintiff invokes her statutory right to declaratory and injunctive relief, as well as costs and attorneys' fees.

74. Without the requested injunctive relief, specifically including the request that the Court retain jurisdiction of this matter for a period to be determined after the Defendants certify that it is fully in compliance with the mandatory requirements of the ADA that are discussed above, Defendants' non-compliance with the ADA's requirements that its facilities be accessible to, and independently usable, by individuals with disabilities is likely to recur.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the members of the Class, pray for:

- a. A Declaratory Judgment that at the commencement of this action Defendant was in violation of the specific requirements of Title III of the ADA described above;
- b. A permanent injunction which directs Defendants to take all steps necessary to bring its facilities into full compliance with the requirements set forth in the ADA, and its implementing regulations, and which further directs that the Court shall retain jurisdiction for a period to be determined after Defendants certify that all of its facilities are fully in compliance with the relevant requirements of the ADA to ensure that Defendants have adopted and is following an institutional policy that will in fact cause Defendants to remain in compliance with the law;

- c. An Order certifying the Class proposed by Plaintiff, and naming Plaintiff as the class representative and appointing her counsel as class counsel;
- d. Payment of costs of suit;
- e. Payment of reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- f. The provision of whatever other relief the Court deems just, equitable and appropriate.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury as to all issues so triable.
